

NEWS > POLICE - COURTS

Huron County District Court

Judge David B. Herrington

Print Page

Published: Thursday, June 13, 2013 8:12 AM EDT

Cases disposed the week of May 21-28:

- Dawn Marie Adloff, 31, of Burton, bound over to Huron County Circuit Court on a charge of controlled substance less than 50 grams and a charge of controlled substance less than 25 grams.
- Anthony Jude Cilc, 53 of Pigeon, found guilty of mechanical contractor's general violation, following a jury trial.
- Dustin Lee Cook, 18, of Port Huron, impeding traffic, $375 in fines and costs and two days of community service.
- Jerome George Frandle, 73, of Rockwood, failure to report abuse, four days in jail and $733 in fines and costs.
- Steven Bernard Kretz, 47, of Saginaw, bound over to Huron County Circuit Court on a charges of operating while intoxicated-third and driving with a suspended license.
- Dustin James Marks, 30, of Bad Axe, failure to report an accident, $425 in fines and costs.
- Dennis Kelvin Moore, 37 of Sebewaing, retail fraud, 50 days in jail and $425 in fines and costs.
- Kayla M. Urban, 18, of Bad Axe, bound over to Huron County Circuit Court on a charge of forgery.
- Jaimi Lynn White, 32, of Bad Axe, drunk and disorderly, $775 in fines and costs and eight days of community service; and careless, $240 in fines and costs.

Copyright © 2013 - Huron Publishing Company, LLC

[\[x\] Close Window](#)

